Betwixt & Between

Ends Saturday, January 25, 2020 at 11:33 AM EST

This project offers a retail donation level, “Retailer Mystic” for approximately $154 USD (SEK 1,440) which includes 6 copies of Betwixt & Between, plus all unlocked stretch goals with a 50% retailer discount. Shipping is charged after the campaign.

From All Or None Games, creators of Kickstarted games Goons, Dicetopia and the expansion Roll with the Punches, comes a strategic adventure board game. For 1-4 players, Betwixt & Between combines eerie European folklore with magical creativity and euro-inspired mechanics. Gameplay is estimated at 90-120 minutes and is acceptable for ages 14+.

“You’ve finally found a way in, to the home of the spirits and the fae, the Betwixt and Between... A tangled and uncharted web of strange places, where most peculiar creatures dwell. Be wary; this land is steeped in ancient magic, and you’re far from alone in here...”

Players will take on the roles of mystics, having found their way into this strange land to explore and harness its magical essence.”

I Am An Adult: The Board Game

Ends Thursday, January 16, 2020 at 8:00 AM EST

This project has a pledge level that is consistent with retail pricing, about 42% off MSRP. This level is “3 Copies of the Game, 3 Expansion Packs”, and is available for $350. It also mentions web credit on their website.

From Sinking Ship Games comes their flagship game, I Am An Adult: The Board Game. It’s a sort of Sim game and utilizes event cards while you make it around the board. It is suitable for 4-8 players, ages 16 and up, and average gameplay time is 90 min-2.5 hours.

“Is adult life not what you thought it'd be? Us neither. After putting ourselves through college and working hard, we're still chipping away at what life throws at us. I Am An Adult The Board Game parodies what modern life is all about, trying to avoid life's little mishaps, crippling debt and trying to survive long enough to make it to the Whispering Oaks Retirement Village.”

Flap Flap Duck

Ends Wednesday, February 5, 2020 at 6:05 AM EST

This project has a pledge level for retailers, “Ducky Retailer Pledge”, for $8 USD (S$10). The creator states this contains “? copies of the game”, which likely means it is $8 per copy, and you pledge however many multiples you want. This is about a 70% discount off MSRP.

From RES Design in Singapore comes Flap Flap Duck, a cooperative, clue-giving game where players try to bring Ducky home. This game is for 2-5 players, ages 14 and up. Gameplay lasts for approximately 30 minutes.

“You all will be piloting Ducky as Ducky's Neurons. It would have been easier if you and your fellow neurons can communicate on what actions to be played. However, the problem lies with Ducky. Ducky had hit its head too many times to the point that all the connection in its brain is scrambled.

The only way to communicate is to give clues.

#SaveDUCKY before is too late.”

Dating Pool

Ends Thursday, January 16, 2020 at 10:00 PM EST

This project has a retail pledge level, “Retail Backers”, available for $90. This pledge level is for 6 games (50% off MSRP), and you can add multiples of $15 for each additional game you would like to purchase.

From Bill Barlow, Harry Rudolph (game designers), and Paola Tuazon (artist) comes Dating Pool, the first dating app themed board game. It is suitable for ages 14 and up, and supports 2-10 players. Gameplay time averages around 10-30 minutes.

“Dating Pool is a push your luck card game for 2 to 10 players (typically played in 10 to 30 minutes) where players must decide whether they’ve found “the one” or whether they should try swiping just one more time... until they run out of potential matches in their area.

Dating Pool has everything you’d expect from the first dating app themed board game: questionable profile pictures, ghosting break ups, terrible bios, awkward gym pics, and paralyzing indecision.”

AlderQuest

Ends Wednesday, January 29, 2020 at 11:00 PM EST

This project has a retail pledge level, “Retailer” for $2. Someone will reach out from the company to personalize your order once the Kickstarter has been completed.

“AlderQuest is an innovative and modular game about animal guilds competing to become Preservers of the Realm through a series of seasonal contests. The first coincides with winter's arrival - a race to collect acorns. AlderQuest offers an unprecedented blend of familiar mechanics (area control, tile placement, bluffing, match-3) with an uncommon depth of strategy, in a charming head-to-head package.”
